Definition of a White Pages Ad

White Pages ads are any ads that appear in the White Pages section.

Here are some facts about White Pages ads:

- All business customers receive a listing with light type in the White Pages. They arrange this with the local phone company.
- Local phone companies are the only ones who can create a listing in our White Pages. DexYP cannot create a White Pages listing. We can only enhance the listing that the customer already has.
- Unlike the Yellow Pages, we cannot sell an RGL (Light Type - Regular listing) in the White Pages.
- If the customer wants any type of advertising (enhancement) beyond a listing with light type, the customer must pay for that advertising through DexYP.
- A 30% Black (aka Grayscale) Highlight feature can be added to many of the White Pages ads.
- The address always appears in light type, upper, and lower case.

The types of White Pages ads are:

fSM:

- Banner Ads
- Corner Billboard Ads
- Margin Ads
- Half and Full Page Display Ads
- Skyscraper Ads
- Communication Listings
- In-Column Ads
- Shadowbox Ads

fDO:

- Logo Ads
- Margin Ads
- Repeating Banner Ads
- In-Column Ads
- Universal Product National

All highlighted White Pages ads must contain the 30% Black background as part of the electronic file. The background color must be reflective of the ad as it will print in the published directory.

- White Page highlighted advertising will be created with 30% black fill.
- Artists can use their own discretion when it comes to making some areas of the ads lighter or darker in order to design the ads to best effect.
- Legibility of the ad is of primary importance.
- Below are examples of highlighted ads in which the Artist chose to keep a portion of the ads white for emphasis or better legibility:

Special Considerations about 30% Black (Gray) Ads

White Page ads are built based upon the table structure of the database in which they reside. Please keep this in mind when converting to 30% Black:

- East: all elements of white page ads are built display ad style – border, art, name and listings.

Product Overview

Two sizes of display ads offered in the White Pages are the half page and full page sizes. Unlike other advertisements in the White Pages, there are very few limitations on what an advertiser can do with the space within the half page and full page ads. One item of interest is that the half page ads always get placed at the bottom of the page in the white pages. See below for available UDACs, Ad Specs and examples.

Product Overview

Shadow Boxes are a form of display advertising located in the White Page section of a directory. They are easily recognizable on the page by their unique and characteristic boxed borders. The majority of the elements within these UDACs including the boxed border and shadow are populated automatically during pagination. The only element that gets set by the artist is the logo/illustration located at the top center of the ad.

fDO: CenturyLink, AT&T, & Embarq Regions (East & West)

LOGO Ads

Logo Superbold - Name & Number

- UDAC: WLN2

- UDAC: WLLHH - CenturyLink and Embarq Only

A White Page Logo Ad appears somewhat like a Yellow Page In-column. The listing appears as a finding line. The address and telephone numbers appear at the bottom of the ad as a “standard” address line. Any additional lines purchased will also appear at the bottom.

In graphics we produce and store the logo only. This rest of the information will be inserted during pagination.

Our ad template files for Logo Ads contain two guidelines. The outer guideline indicates the actual crop mark size of the Logo. The inner guideline indicates the maximum size the logo can be created at. The difference between the inner and outer guides is used as a buffer to prevent the logo from running up against the text that will appear in the ad.

- Artist supplies the logo only.
- The logo must be line art. A photograph is not permitted. The logo must also be vector art created in Adobe Illustrator. It cannot contain placed images or Rasterized elements. Artwork created in Adobe Photoshop cannot be used.
- The logo must appear black.
- Reverse logos are permitted, and must not go past the inner guide.
- Screens are permitted in UDACs that do not get a ‘highlight’ screen, like the UDAC WLLHH.
- No logos are to appear other than the customer’s own logo. No coupon logos, credit card logos, or anything else.
- Text can be set if it is part of the logo. Do not set any address or phone numbers, as these are added during pagination.
